THE JUDICIAL COMMISSION OF INQUIRY INTO ALLEGATIONS OF STATE CAPTURE, CORRUPTION AND FRAUD IN THE PUBLIC SECTOR

16 November 2021

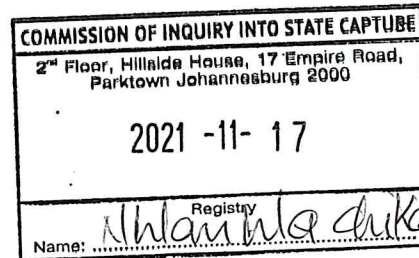

City Of Johannesburg Old Council Chamber
158 Civil Boulevard
Braamfontein

Our Ref: SAV001-HV320

Attention: The Secretariate of the Commission

By Hand

Dear Sir/Madam,

RE: SAVE EOH // STEPHEN VAN COLLER

1. We act for and on behalf of a group of individuals known as Save EOH ("Save EOH"), which constitutes a group of erstwhile employees and shareholders, and other interested parties of EOH Group (Pty) Ltd ("EOH").
2. Our instructions are to withhold the identity of the members of Save EOH for several reasons, due to, inter alia, the fear of targeted harassment of such members, and other related security issues.

Directors: H Valentine BA, LLB, LLM. K Thekiso BA, LLB, Postgraduate Certificate in International Trade Law, AIPSA Diploma in Insolvency Law. S Valentine LLB, AIPSA Diploma in Insolvency Law. Associates: A T Dzinouya LLB, LLM. A Nkosi LLB. Consultants: K Moja LLB, LLM, Postgraduate Diploma in Tax. C Britain LLB, LLM (cum laude), S Ndamase LLB, Postgraduate Certificate, Banking and Financial Markets. N Dlamini BCom, LLB.

Registration no: 2016/390182/21, VAT no: 4440275651

3. Save EOH is desirous of preventing the further demise of EOH, and of protecting the rights and continued employment of the remaining 5500 staff members employed by EOH Group, its shareholders, and other stakeholders, who have been prejudicially affected since the appointment of Mr. Stephen van Coller ("van Coller") as its Group Chief Executive Officer.
4. On or about 23 November 2020, and at the Commission of Inquiry into the State Capture (held at the City of Johannesburg old council chamber and chaired by the Honourable Deputy Chief Justice Zondo), van Coller presented certain testimony under oath.
5. Attached hereto and marked "X" is a document (incorporating several attachments), as prepared by our client, in response to the testimony of van Coller for your attention.

Yours faithfully,

Heinrich Valentine
Managing Director
