

A sample of Van Coller quotes in the media

Defamation of EOH

4 July 2021	Business Live	"Don't let private sector graft go unpunished."
29 June 2021	Business Day	"It's not dissimilar to what Steinhoff did," van Coller said "People benefited. They got money and they need to give as much back as they can."
28 June 2021	Daily Maverick	"No direct evidence has been presented at the [Zondo] commission...but EOH's CEO Stephen van Coller, who launched investigations into the wide-ranging allegations when he was appointed in 2018, has admitted corruption was rampant under his predecessors."
27 May 2021	ITWeb	"Corruption has cost EOH dearly, says CEO van Coller."
25 May 2021	Business Maverick	"Corruption within EOH was endemic."
25 November 2020	Daily Maverick	"It started fraying at the edges," he said."
25 November 2020	MoneyWeb	How corruption happens (article title). "EOH CEO says it begins with poor oversight at the top."
23 November 2020	statecapture.org.za	State Capture – EOH Day 311 Exhibit VV1 Stephen van Coller (68 pages)
16 July 2020	Financial Mail	"R10,000 invested in EOH in 2017 is worth just R384 today ... two years unravelling a litany of fraud."

16 July 2019	Business Day	van Coller refers to ENS, fraud, corruption, Microsoft, public contracts, everyone resigning, not explicitly saying but alluding to them being involved while also denying their involvement by likening to government official (Nhlanhla Nene) who stepped aside.
16 July 2019	ITWeb	" "Today is not a great day. It's fairly devastating when you join a business and then you have to go through the process that we have just gone through over the last five months. I would never wish it on my worst enemies," Van Coller said. "
20 February 2019	Business Day	" Citing disclosures at the Zondo commission of inquiry into state capture, van Coller said that with its large workforce, it was possible EOH had become "a little bit representative of the population" during a corrupt period in SA's history. "
4 October 2018	Business Day	" "Like EOH, the country has bottomed out," he said. "